Introduction

This document sets out the Navitas University Partnerships Europe (UPE) policy and procedure for Teaching Training and Development. Navitas UPE has, as part of its Corporate Code of Practice, a commitment to continuous improvement and the UPE College* network has demonstrated its adherence to this commitment through the implementation of Teaching Training and Development in each College. Navitas UPE has a long history of, and commitment to, the provision of quality services and support to students. It recognises the importance of engaging students early in their learning experience and places immense value on the Student Voice. Working together with students, our teaching and support staff are committed to providing an education and student experience that is shaped, reviewed and enhanced in the spirit of partnership and co-determination.

Please interpret 'College' as 'Campus' where applicable*

Navitas UPE Teaching Training and Development

Navitas UPE recognises that appropriately experienced subject specialist teachers are fundamental to the delivery of high-quality, academically rigorous educational provision. Subject specialists ensure that teaching is current, accurate, and aligned with disciplinary standards, enabling students to develop the knowledge, skills, and academic behaviours required for successful progression to partner universities.

The organisation is committed to recruiting and retaining staff with relevant academic and professional expertise, and to supporting their ongoing training and development. Continuous professional development (CPD) ensures that teaching practices remain pedagogically effective, inclusive, and responsive to diverse student needs, including international and widening participation cohorts. It also enables staff to remain current with developments in their discipline, advances in educational practice, and evolving regulatory and sector expectations.

Through structured professional development, peer engagement, and reflective practice, Navitas UPE fosters a culture of continuous improvement, innovation, and academic excellence. This approach supports consistency in the student learning experience, strengthens academic standards, and underpins achievement of positive student outcomes in continuation, attainment, and progression.

Navitas UPE Teaching, Training and Development Framework

It is important to equip staff with the skills and knowledge to enable them to carry out their role effectively within Navitas UPE. Providing a high-quality, comprehensive and ongoing training framework which supports staff to understand their role and how it fits into a College is essential. The Navitas UPE Teaching, Training and Development policy provides the opportunity for newly appointed and/or current staff to engage in a framework of training and development which focuses specifically on college based Higher Education (HE). The framework provides a structure which will equip individuals with essential skills and knowledge required to support the Navitas UPE and University Partner (UP) student experience.

Navitas UPE have aligned the teaching, training and development policy to the Advance HE Professional Standards Framework 2023 (PSF 2023) and is informed by other regulatory and professional teaching organisations. This approach provides a comprehensive set of professional standards and guidelines for all those who are involved in teaching and supporting learning within the division.

The Framework defines key characteristics which underpin Navitas UPE values of teaching, training and development. Within the PSF 2023, Dimensions have been created which inform and describe practice. These dimensions are made up of 15 statements that are arranged as three related sets and are essential to professional practice:

- Professional Values (V1-5)

- Core Knowledge (K1-5)
- Areas of Activity (A1-5)
